

LIFESAVING SOCIETY

The Lifeguarding Experts

December 2008

To whom it may concern,

Ontario

Kindly accept this letter as a reference for Mr. Peter Alexandrou. Peter has been employed on a contract basis by the Lifesaving Society, Ontario for over 10 years. His primary position has been that of a National Lifeguard Service (NLS) Instructor and Examiner. This role involves training and examining participants that wish to become certified lifeguards. He has also been involved in teaching first aid and CPR courses, as well as Bronze Cross courses (prerequisites to NLS).

During his service as an instructor/examiner he has shown a willingness to do his best to assist participants in achieving their goals. Through student evaluations it has been shown that Peter has a positive attitude towards teaching, and combines humor and hard work to achieve success.

He has proven to be a valuable team member, and is always ready to work towards resolving any issues that arise. It is my belief that Peter would make a valuable contribution to any team and is able to complete any task he undertakes.

Sincerely,

Carol Cruikshank
